Briefing about Worplesdon Parish Council

Function of the Parish Council

Worplesdon Parish Council was constituted in 1894. A Parish Council is the most ancient form of local government and has been in use in England since the 8th century.

The modern Parish Council is a statutory elected local authority, which acts as a voice for local opinion by keeping in close and regular contact with its electorate and provides a focus for voluntary organisations in the area.

We provide various services to the community including, but not limited to, grass cutting, provision of play areas/benches/bus shelters/land for recreational purposes, litter picking and limited vegetation clearance.

Members of the public are welcome to attend any meeting of the Council. Full council meetings are held every six weeks on a Thursday evening. Residents can address the Council during the public participation session. Meetings are held in the Small Hall, Worplesdon Memorial Hall, Perry Hill, Worplesdon, GU3 3RF unless stated otherwise on the notice of meeting.

Our Parish includes the wards of Broadacres, Fairlands, Jacobs Well, Perry Hill and Wood Street Village. The Council comprises 16 councillors, the Clerk, Assistant Clerk and Groundsman.

Organisation Structure

Committee Structure

Roles within the organisation

The Council is a corporate body. All decisions of the Council are taken by the majority vote during Council, or Committee meetings.

The Chairman is responsible for ensuring the business of the meeting is transacted in accordance with the Council's standing orders and financial regulations in an efficient and timely manner.

The Clerk to the Council is the Proper Officer/Responsible Financial Officer and carries out the statutory obligations of the Council.

What we do

The Parish Council undertakes a significant number of services on behalf of the Parish. It raises the money to undertake projects via the 'precept' which is collected through local council tax by Guildford Borough Council. In addition to the services offered we also work in partnership with Guildford Borough Council and Surrey County Council as well as other organisations in all four wards.

Below are further services which Worplesdon Parish Council carries out for the benefit of residents of the Parish:

- Owns and maintains:
 - Jacobs Well Recreation Ground
 - The Harry Pickup Memorial Meadow (Harry's Meadow), Jacobs Well
 - Nevins Copse, Pinks Hill, Wood Street Village
 - the Wood Street Village Community Car Park
- Leases and maintains:
 - Wood Street Village Green
 - Perry Hill Green
 - Pitch Place Green
 - Toby's Oak – Backside Common

- including annual tree inspections and tree surgery, as appropriate
- Owns and maintains:
 - Fairlands play area
 - Jacobs Well play area
 - Worplesdon play area
- Owns and maintains floodlit tennis courts complete with disabled parking bays
- Provides and maintains:
 - litter bins
 - bus shelters
 - benches
 - notice boards in all four wards
 - village signs
 - the Jacobs Well war memorial
- Pond maintenance work and ditch clearance throughout the Parish
- Provision of Community Speed Watch kits and vehicle activated signs
- Provides quarterly newsletters to every household in the Parish
- We work closely with the County Council's Highways Department to try and resolve highway issues
- Consider all planning applications relating to Worplesdon and make comments, as appropriate, to Guildford Borough Council
- Created a Flood Forum comprising representatives from Worplesdon Parish Council, Guildford Borough Council, Surrey County Council, Thames Water, the Environment Agency, Surrey Wildlife Trust and local Residents' Associations working together to resolve flooding issues in the Parish
- Provide grants to local organisations

Co-option of Parish Councillors (Casual Vacancy)

Eligibility of candidates

The Parish Council is able to consider any person to fill a vacancy provided that:

A person is qualified to be elected and to be a councillor if they are a British, Commonwealth, Irish or European Union citizen and on the relevant day (that is, the day of nomination or election), they are 18 or over. In addition, the person must meet at least one of the following criteria: -

- (1) On the relevant day and thereafter they continue to be on the electoral register for the Parish, or
- (2) During the whole of the twelve months before that day they have owned or tenanted land or premises in the Parish, or
- (3) During the whole of the twelve months before that day their principal or only place of work has been in the Parish, or
- (4) During the whole of the twelve months before that day they have resided in the Parish or within three miles of it.

Except for qualification (1), these qualifications then continue for the full term of office, until the next ordinary elections.

There are certain disqualifications for being a parish councillor (see s80 of the Local Government Act 1972) of which the main are:

- holding a paid office or employment under the Parish Council
- holds any employment in a company which, in accordance with Part V of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 other than section 73, is under the control of the local authority
- the subject of a bankruptcy restrictions order or interim order
- having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) of not less than three months, without the option of a fine during the preceding five years; or
- being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal electoral practices.

Applications

Candidates are required to:

- Submit information about themselves, by way of completing a short application form (pages 11 & 12).
- Confirm their eligibility for the position of parish councillor within the statutory rules (page 10).

Following receipt of application form(s) and confirmation(s) of eligibility, the next suitable Parish Council meeting will have an agenda item 'To receive written applications for the office of Parish Councillor and to consider the suitability of the candidate/s to fill the existing vacancy'. Eligible candidates will be invited to attend the meeting.

Copies of the eligible candidates' application form(s) will be circulated to all parish councillors by the Clerk (or Chairman in the absence of the Clerk and Assistant Clerk) at least 3 clear days prior to the meeting of the full Parish Council at which the co-option will be considered.

All such documents will be treated by the Clerk/Assistant Clerk/Chairman and all Parish Councillors as strictly private and confidential.

At the Co-option Meeting

At the co-option meeting, candidates will be given five minutes maximum to introduce themselves to the parish councillors (members), give information on their background and experience and explain why they wish to become a member of the Parish Council.

The process will be carried out in the public session. A resolution will then be passed to exclude members of the public and press from the meeting to enable the Parish Council to have a private discussion regarding the suitability of the candidate/s for the vacancy. The candidate/s and public will then be invited back to the meeting following which a vote will be taken. The vote will be by recorded voting slip as per the Council's Standing Orders.

In order for a candidate to be co-opted to the Parish Council, it will be necessary for them to obtain an absolute majority of votes cast (50% + 1 of the votes available at the meeting). If there are more than two candidates and there is no candidate with an overall majority in the first round of voting the candidate with the least number of votes will drop out of the process. Further rounds of voting will then take place with the process repeated until a candidate has an absolute majority. An only candidate will normally, but not necessarily, be co-opted. LGA 1972, Sch. 12 s39 states the co-option must be by an absolute majority vote of those present and voting in the meeting.

If present, a candidate who is co-opted will sign at the co-option meeting a Declaration of Acceptance of Office, including an undertaking to abide by the Parish Council's Code of Conduct, a copy of which is enclosed with this pack, and may take office immediately thereafter. If not present, a co-opted candidate will sign the Declaration of Acceptance of Office and undertaking to abide by the Parish Council's Code of Conduct, and, upon signing, will take office either before or at the next meeting of the Parish Council. A failure to sign the Declaration of Acceptance of office will result in automatic disqualification from office.

Holding a Position of Public Office

The Clerk will notify Guildford Borough Council Electoral Services Office of the co-option of the new parish councillor. A co-opted Parish Councillor will also complete a Notification of Disclosable Pecuniary and Other Interests form which the Clerk/Chairman will lodge with the Monitoring Officer at Guildford Borough Council within 28 days of the co-option. Failure to comply, without reasonable excuse, with the arrangements for the registration and disclosure of disclosable pecuniary interests is a criminal offence, with a penalty on conviction of a fine of up to £5,000 and disqualification from office for up to five years.

It is also a criminal offence to knowingly provide false or misleading information when making the notification or to be reckless as to whether the information is true and not misleading.

Councillors hold a position of public office with which comes responsibilities to attend all the meetings of the council and to abide by the seven principles (or Nolan principles) of public life being:

1. Selflessness
2. Integrity
3. Objectivity
4. Accountability
5. Openness
6. Honesty
7. Leadership

Councillors are required to promote and maintain high standards of conduct when they are representing the council and are required to:

- Treat others with respect
- Not to bully or behave in an intimidatory manner
- Not seek to improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on others
- To use the resources of the Council in accordance with its requirement; and
- Not to disclose confidential information

History of parish councils

The current system of parish councils was formed in 1894. There are currently around 10,000 parish councils in the country.

Local councils are the first tier of local government, being the closest to individual communities they have the greatest ability to identify, understand and address the needs of the communities they serve.

Worplesdon Parish Council is apolitical i.e. politically neutral. Councillors are required to represent only the interests of its residents, not a political party.

Eligibility Criteria

The Parish Council is able to consider any person to fill a vacancy provided that:

- A person is qualified to be elected and to be a councillor if they are a British, Commonwealth, Irish or European Union citizen and on the relevant day (that is, the day of nomination or election), they are 18 or over. In addition, the person must meet at least one of the following criteria: -
 - (1) On the relevant day and thereafter they continue to be on the electoral register for the Parish, or
 - (2) During the whole of the twelve months before that day they have owned or tenanted land or premises in the Parish, or
 - (3) During the whole of the twelve months before that day their principal or only place of work has been in the Parish, or
 - (4) During the whole of the twelve months before that day they have resided in the Parish or within three miles of it.
- Except for qualification (1), these qualifications then continue for the full term of office, until the next ordinary elections.
- Ability to attend evening meetings.

Support and training

Induction training is provided which comprises a 4-hour tour of the Parish and a 'walk through' of the Members' Handbook. Ongoing training is provided via the Surrey Association of Local Councils and other bespoke training sessions. These vary between day-time and evening sessions. The Clerk can also provide advice as and when required.
