

Register of Interests for parish councillors and co-opted parish councillors

GUIDANCE NOTES FOR COMPLETION OF THIS FORM:

1. Please complete this register of interests form in BLOCK CAPITALS and return it to your parish clerk, as soon as possible. Your parish clerk will then upload the form on to your parish council's website (if it has one) and forward the original to:

The Monitoring Officer
c/o Democratic Services
Guildford Borough Council,
Millmead House
Millmead,
Guildford,
Surrey GU2 4BB

Email: stephen.rix@guildford.gov.uk

The registration of parish councillors' and co-opted parish councillors' interests is mandatory.

2. A copy of your entry on the register of interests will be available for public inspection at Guildford Borough Council's offices and will also be published on Guildford Borough Council's website (normally via a hyperlink to the relevant page on the parish council's website).

Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

3. The different types of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests are set out in Section A below. In addition to your own Disclosable Pecuniary Interests, you are also required to notify the Council's Monitoring Officer of the Disclosable Pecuniary Interests (of which you are aware) of your spouse, civil partner or any person with whom you are living as if they were a spouse or civil partner. In this form, such a person is referred to as the "Spouse/Civil Partner". The Spouse/Civil Partner is not required to be identified.
4. Within 28 days of becoming aware of any change to the interests specified below, you must complete a new register of interests form (a copy of which is available from your parish clerk) and return the completed form to your parish clerk, who will upload it to your parish council's website and send the original to the Monitoring Officer.
5. Failure to comply, without reasonable excuse, with the arrangements for the registration and disclosure of disclosable pecuniary interests is a criminal offence, with a penalty on conviction of a fine of up to £5,000 and disqualification from office for up to five years. It is also a criminal offence to knowingly provide false or misleading information when making the notification or to be reckless as to whether the information is true and not misleading.

Non-Pecuniary Interests

6. If your parish council has adopted a code of conduct similar to the Councillors' Code of Conduct adopted by Guildford Borough Council, you will now also be required to register any Non-Pecuniary Interests. A "non-pecuniary interest" is defined as an interest which is not a disclosable pecuniary interest but is nonetheless an interest that may, in the mind of a reasonable observer, affect your objectivity or judgement of the public interest. Examples of non-pecuniary interests include but are not limited to:
  - (a) membership of organisations to which you have been appointed or nominated by your parish council and in which you hold a position of general control or management, or
  - (b) membership or holding a position of general control or management of any body that:
    - exercises functions of a public nature
    - is directed to charitable purposes

- one of whose principal purposes includes the influence of public opinion or policy (including any political party or trade union)

Sensitive Interests

7. If you feel that you have an interest which, if disclosed on a public register, could lead to yourself or a person connected to you being subject to violence or intimidation, then you must still disclose the interest on this form, but highlight it as a Sensitive Interest. Your parish clerk will then refer your form to the Monitoring Officer who will contact you to discuss whether the interest should be withheld from the register viewable on the website and the publicly available register.

Definitions

8. In this register:

“body in which I or my spouse/civil partner have a beneficial interest” means a firm in which you or your spouse/civil partner are a partner or a body corporate of which you or your spouse/civil partner are a director, or in the securities of which you or your spouse/civil partner have a beneficial interest;

“co-opted member” means a person who is not a member of the authority but who

(a) is a member of any committee or sub-committee of the authority, or

(b) is a member of, and represents the authority on, any joint committee or joint sub-committee of the authority;

and who is entitled to vote on any question that falls to be decided at any meeting of that committee or sub-committee;

“director” includes a member of the committee of management of an industrial and provident society;

“land” includes an easement, servitude, interest or right in or over land which does not carry with it a right for you, your spouse or civil partner (alone or jointly with another) to occupy the land or to receive income;

“securities” means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and other securities of any description, other than money deposited with a building society.
