Privacy Policy

This website is run by Worplesdon Parish Council. The Council regards your privacy as important and complies with all Data Protection legislation.

We only process and hold information in order to provide public services. This notice explains how we use and share your information, which may be collected on a paper, via an online form, by telephone, email, by a member of our staff, or one of our partners.

We record personal information if you:

- Subscribe to or apply for services that require personal information.
- Report a fault and give your contact details for us to respond.
- Contact us and leave your details for us to respond.

Why we collect information

We collect and hold information about you, in order to:

- Deliver public services.
- Confirm your identity to provide some services.
- Contact you by post, email, or telephone.
- Understand your needs to provide the services that you request.
- Understand what we can do for you and inform you of other relevant services and benefits.
- Obtain your opinion about our services.
- Help us to build up a picture of how we are performing at delivering services.
- Prevent and detect fraud and corruption in the use of public funds.
- Allow us to undertake statutory functions efficiently and effectively.
- Make sure we meet our statutory obligations.

Our Right to Process Information

We are permitted to process information under GDPR Article 6 (1) (a) (b) and (e) when:

- Processing is with consent of the data subject, or
- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation, or
- Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

How we use your information

We will only use any personal information you send us for the purposes for which you provide it. We will only hold your information for as long as necessary. All employees who have access to your personal data and are associated with the handling of that data are obliged to respect the confidentiality of your data. All your communications to us are protected against unauthorised access by third parties.

The Council tries to keep the information we have about you accurate and up to date. If, however, you find errors or inaccuracies in your data, we will erase, complete, or amend that information upon request. Our contact details are below.

We will process your information for the following purposes:

- For the service you requested, and to monitor and improve the Council's performance in responding to your request.
- To allow us to be able to communicate and provide services and benefits appropriate to your needs.
- To ensure that we meet our legal obligations.
- Where necessary for the law enforcement functions.
- To prevent and detect fraud or crime.
- To process relevant financial transactions including grants and payments for goods and services supplied to the Council.
- Where necessary to protect individuals from harm or injury.
- To allow the statistical analysis of data so we can plan the provision of services.

Information sharing

We may occasionally need to pass your information to other people and organisations that provide the service. These providers are obliged to keep your details securely, and use them only to fulfil your request. If we wish to pass your sensitive or confidential information onto a third party, we will only do so once we have obtained your consent, unless we are legally required to do so. We may disclose information to other partners where it is necessary, either to comply with a legal obligation, or where permitted, under the Data Protection Act.

Where we need to disclose sensitive or confidential information to other partners, we will do so only with your prior explicit consent or where we are legally required to. We may disclose information when necessary to prevent risk of harm to an individual.

Information Security

Worplesdon Parish Council ensures the security of personal data. We make sure that your information is protected from unauthorised access, loss, manipulation, falsification, destruction or unauthorised disclosure. This is done through appropriate technical measures and appropriate policies. We will only keep your data for the purpose it was collected for and only for as long as is necessary. After which it will be deleted.

Children

We will not process any data relating to a child (under 13) without the express parental/ guardian consent of the child concerned.
